7. (Confidential - GLC) In response to his call yesterday I called Trip Mosbacher, on the White House staff, and gave him a limited rundown on L. Fletcher Prouty and some aspects of his book entitled "The Secret Team: The CIA and Its Allies in Control of the United States and the World" drawn on a review by Walter Pforzheimer as an aide-memoire. I made it clear to Mosbacher that in view of the various limitations places on the Agency from a variety of sources, I was providing this information on the basis of Prouty's contacts with CIA and on comments given me by others about Prouty's book. Mosbacher said he scanned the book last night and our comments agreed with his conclusions and information from other sources.

8. (Unclassified - PLC) George Gilbert, Legislative Reference, Office of Management and Budget, called and inquired as to the status of our position to ~~State's~~ reply to Chairman Fulbright, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, on S. Res. 94. I informed Gilbert that I had furnished our oral concurrence to State's position on 12 September 1973, to Bill Breidenbach, of Gilbert's office. I explained at that time Breidenbach said our call would suffice and that no written reply was necessary.

9. (Secret - LLM) Met with Jim Woolsey, Senate Armed Services Committee, and gave him a package entitled, "Follow-up Requirements for Senate Armed Services Committee," which he reviewed and said satisfied the follow-up requirements of Mr. Colby's appearance before executive session of the Committee on 16 November concerning the St. George allegations. Senator Symington has not yet decided whether to print the hearings, but if they are we will be given an opportunity to review and sanitize. Responding to his request, I told Woolsey that material on the "Jack Anderson leaks" and the Martinez report is in Volume III, "Documentation Provided by CIA," which the Committee possesses.

10. (Unclassified - RJK) Margaret Russing, on the staff of Senator James Buckley (R., N. Y.), called to ask for a publication entitled, "People's Republic of China: International Trade Handbook." It was obtained through  OCI, and mailed to the Senator's office.

Security, met with Francis O. Wilcox, Executive Director, Commission on the Organization of the Government for the Conduct of Foreign Policy, and with Senator Mike Mansfield (D., Mont.), and various other members of the Commission and staff of the Commission. At Senator Mansfield's specific request, documentation on the limited security briefing given concerning information provided the Commission in the Director's briefing of yesterday, 19 November, was not completed. Senator Mansfield was advised that a simple memorandum for record setting forth the fact that Commission members had been given a limited security briefing concerning certain material included in the Director's briefing would be filed in lieu of individually signed agreements. Senator Mansfield indicated this would be very satisfactory and he had no question concerning the security arrangements and the handling thereof during the Director's briefing. He was quite critical of certain events relating to the State Department briefing. See [REDACTED] Memoranda for Record.

Talked to Thomas J. Reckford, Staff Assistant on Intelligence, Commission on the Organization of the Government for the Conduct of Foreign Policy, and told him that [REDACTED] in our Security Office, who is working with the Ace Reporters, Inc., expects the transcript of yesterday's hearing will be finished later this evening. Reckford was quite complimentary of our assistance in expediting the transcript. It was his understanding that it could be some 10 days or so before the transcript could be completed. He told me also that the Commission held an executive session after this morning's meeting with DIA representatives. After the session, Chairman Murphy met with the staff and was highly critical at the staff's failure to keep on top of all arrangements for security assistance during the Commission's hearings. Chairman Murphy specifically requested a detailed rundown on the arrangements made and in particular those for use of Senator Mansfield's office yesterday afternoon by State Department representatives.
